PARKVIEW OFFERS VISITORS A LITTLE JAZZ

Vancouver, Wa.— Vancouvercenter announced today that visitors to their Parkview sales office prior to August 22 will be entered in a daily drawing to win pairs of tickets to the 10th annual Vancouver Wine and Jazz Festival. The festival will be held on August 24, 25, and 26 at Esther Short Park on 8th and Columbia Street.

Parkview is a project that will feature 112 condo units in the heart of Vancouver. Unit plans vary from studios to spacious two bedrooms and are priced from $114,900 to $364,900. Parkview offers views of the Cascade Mountains and the Columbia River, and is across the street from Esther Short Park. Parkview's showroom is open daily from 11:00 am to 5:30 pm, at 601 Columbia Street, Vancouver, WA.

This year's festival features a diverse lineup of blues, jazz fusion, Latin jazz, vocal jazz, and straight ahead and pop/crossover artists, including the Blind Boys of Alabama, Melissa Manchester, Take 6, Ramsey Lewis, The Yellowjackets, Kenny Loggins and Poncho Sanchez. Local and regional jazz ensembles will also be performing. Recognized as one of the most important jazz festivals on the west coast, the festival is the largest event of its kind in the Northwest.

In addition to the great music, the festival features over 200 wines from around the world. Attendees can sample wines, or purchase a glass to sip with food from nine restaurants, ranging from Thai to Southern barbecue. Art lovers can shop the 50 fine artists from California, Idaho, Washington & Oregon.

"We are thrilled to support the Wine and Jazz Festival, but more importantly we want visitors to see the amazing events that are happening right outside their doors," said Nawzad Othman, owner's representative for the project.

About the Vancouver Wine and Jazz Festival: The festival will be held on August 24, 25, and 26. Ticket prices are as follows: Friday $20; Saturday $25; Sunday $25. 3-Day passes are $50 advance, $60 gate. Tickets are at TicketsWest online at:
